

Aotearoa Global And Development Education Network

Educating for a just and sustainable world

If you are a teacher, community worker or similar professional who has an active interest in the role education plays in developing informed citizens who contribute to a just and sustainable world, this is your network.

AGADEN provides:

- Connection with colleagues who share your interest and commitment
- Free subscription to Global Focus Aotearoa resources
- A web service giving access to information, ideas and resources
- A monthly e-newsletter
- Professional development workshops
- A biennial conference
- Promotion and representation of global education at events and conferences.

Visit our website to find out more or join now by completing the form overleaf.

AGADEN supports education that enables people in a globalised world to:

Understand our common and diverse humanity,

Be aware of our interconnectedness, relationships, rights and responsibilities,

Think creatively and critically, and link understanding and action,

Participate with integrity and compassion, contributing to a just and sustainable world.
